Wallet Recovery Services by Veksler Consulting LLC - Service Contract

This service contract is provided by Veksler Consulting LLC (VC) effective November 9, 2021 for all services provided to new clients in relation to cryptocurrency recovery services. VC is a Limited Liability Corporation operated by David Veksler out of Denver, Colorado and hosted at https://walletrecovery.info and https://thebitcoinconsultancy.com/

Background

1: Client is offering his Bitcoin or cryptocurrency wallet to VC in order to regain access to any assets contained therein.

2: VC agrees to provide such services per the terms laid out below.

Client Terms and Conditions

By submitting your wallet information and your password information to VC you are agreeing to the following terms:

1. I affirm that I am either the sole legal owner of the coins for which password recovery services are to be performed or that I have the legal right to access those accounts and all data and cryptocurrency contained within them.

2. I affirm that I am not involved in any attempts to obtain unauthorized access to coins or data legally owned by a person other than myself.

3. I agree that VC will collect a mutually agreed, non-refundable fee if (and only if) VC is successful at recovering the funds. The fee is 20% of recovered assets if the value of coins at the time of recovery is less than 10 Bitcoin, 15% if the value is between 10 and 100 Bitcoin, and 10% if over 100 Bitcoin.

4. I understand that VC will make a best-effort attempt to recover my wallet, but that VC has sole discretion over the amount of computational resources that will be spent on any individual recovery attempt.

5. Client must pay return shipping costs within 31 days of being notified that recovery service is complete (whether successful or not) if they wish to recover their device.

Contractor Agreement by VC

1. VC will make a best effort to recover client's cryptocurrency and return it minus the recovery fee.

2. VC will not use customer data for any purpose other than cryptocurrency recovery without express written permission. All confidential data will be deleted upon client request.

3. VC will return, destroy, or delete all client assets including computers, hard drives, wallets, etc. upon request.
